Dollar General Literacy Foundation awards $10K to BCLC

The Brunswick County Literacy Council Receives $10,000 Grant from the Dollar General Literacy Foundation to Support “Literacy For All”.

The Dollar General Literacy Foundation awarded the Brunswick County Literacy Council a $10,000 grant to support its “Literacy For All” Program. This local grant award is part of more than $8.3 million in grants awarded to more than 1,000 schools, nonprofits and organizations across the 44 states that Dollar General serves.

“We are delighted to receive the generous support for our “Literacy For All” Program from the Dollar General Foundation. These funds will enable us to provide tuition-free, high quality instruction to adults across the county.” – Dorothy Hoerr, Executive Director

“We are honored to fund literacy and education initiatives, which support our mission of Serving Others,” said Todd Vasos, Dollar General’s CEO. “The Dollar General Literacy Foundation is celebrating its 25th anniversary in 2018 and a legacy of helping people improve their lives through literacy and education. Including this grant, the Dollar General Literacy Foundation has provided more than $154 million in funding to help more than 10 million people. We believe these programs can have a positive impact on the communities we serve and we look forward to continuing to partner with organizations dedicated to making a difference in the lives of millions of Americans.”
